Ti-Sarana Affirmation Reverend Yuki Sugahara

“Deep mind is the deeply entrusting mind. There are two aspects. One is to believe deeply and decidedly that we are an ordinary being of karmic unwholesomeness caught in birth-and-death, ever sinking and ever wandering in transmigration from innumerable kalpas in the past, with never a condition that would lead to emancipation. The second is to believe deeply and decidedly that Amida Buddha’s Forty-eight Vows grasp sentient beings, and that allowing ourselves to be carried by the power of the Vow without any doubt or apprehension, we will attain birth.”

– The Commentary on the Contemplation Sutra, Shan-Tao

Happy New Year everyone! This is the second New Year the Sugaharas are welcoming in Portland and I hope we are able to welcome more years together with the OBT Sangha!

This year, we have the great good fortune of welcoming Gomonsu, Kojun Otani to OBT in September and of having a Kie-shiki/Ti-sarana affirmation. This will be a once-in-a-lifetime event, so I strongly recommend that everyone come to OBT when he visits us.

The Kie-shiki/Ti-sarana Affirmation is the ceremony to receive a Buddhist Name to reinforce one’s Buddhist identity or to create self-awareness as a Buddhist. “Ti” means “Three (in this case: Buddha, Dharma, Sangha)” and “Sarana” is often translated as “refuge” so Ti-sarana is often translated as “Threefold Refuge.” However, this translation often bothers me. The word refuge means “the state of being safe or sheltered from pursuit, danger, or difficulty.” But, as the first two of the Four Noble Truths teaches us: 1.the State of Suffering is unsatisfactory-ness, and 2. the Cause of Suffering is self-centeredness. In Buddhism it is understood that self-centeredness creates suffering or difficulties.

So, “conversion” is a more accurate translation for Sarana to me. According to the English dictionary, conversion means “the process of changing or causing something to change from one form to another.” So the Ti-Sarana is to convert from our tendency to rely on our self-centered ideas to reliance on the Buddha, Dharma and Sangha.

I still remember when I first drove to Osaka from Kyoto for the first time. It is about 33 miles and takes about an hour, so it is not a long drive. My band was having a gig at a club in Osaka that day and I didn’t have GPS at that time, so I had to drive using a map. Arriving at the club was easy, but we went out for dinner before returning to Kyoto, so I got turned around.

Trying to return home, I drove about half an hour wandering around the city of Osaka. I realized that I had become completely disoriented! Finally, I asked a convenience store worker the way to get to Kyoto and I was able to get home.

I’m sure that everyone has had the experience of getting lost. Can you recall the reason you became lost? Don’t blame your wife/husband/parents/siblings/friends. I got lost because I thought I could drive home relying on my own sense of direction and was embarrassed to ask the way. But when I discarded the thought of being embarrassed, I was able to return home.

So, the “conversion” of reliance often changes the results. According to the words of Shan-ao I shared above, we are wandering in this realm of birth-and-death (suffering) because we are relying on our self-centeredness, but when we “convert” our reliance to the power of the Vow, we are able to experience emancipation from the world of suffering.

I believe the person of Nembutsu often experiences this “conversion” of reliance. We cannot convert ourselves totally, but whenever we encounter the wisdom of Buddha through Nembutsu, our way of thinking changes. However after receiving the wisdom of Buddha, it is easy to revert to our regular self and think in self-centered ways, so we need to keep listening. If we keep receiving the wisdom of Buddha, our way of living will be adjusted, just as I was able to return home by asking the convenience store worker the way. I hope you all live with the guidance of the Buddha, Dharma and Sangha this year.

Bridge
Hoonko Seminar Speaker, January
12, 2019

Rev. Harry Gyokyo Bridge spent his youth in Tokyo – where he was born and attended an international high school – and the Boston area. He encountered Buddhism while in college and found his way into the Buddhist ministry. He attended both the Institute of Buddhist Studies in Berkeley, CA and Ryukoku University in Kyoto, Japan. Rev. Bridge is currently the resident minister of the Buddhist Church of Oakland. This is a seminar not to be missed.

President's Column

Everything Old Is New Again

Ken Garner, OBT President

In the January newsletter there is usually an article written by the out-going temple president and one by the incoming president. This year I will be pulling double duty, as the out-going president of 2018 and as the in-coming president for 2019.

2018 was a great year. I have seen the OBT Sangha continue to flourish and become more active. Obon had the most attendees in my memory and the other 2 traditional fundraisers were well attended. We had a Tofu Throwdown that resulted in 2 new dishes for the Spring Food Bazaar. The Dharma School participated in a community service project with Temple Beth Israel repairing a greenhouse for the homeless community. Reverend Sugahara gave 2 3 public lecture series. We hosted 2 concerts (Hiroya Tsukamoto and No-No Boy). We sponsored a public lecture, Kodomo No Tameni, by George Nakata, a first-hand account of the incarceration of the Japanese American community during WWII (this can be viewed on the OBT Utube Channel, direct link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EOAWW8ih2QQ>). Our annual Holiday Craft Fair was great fun for both our vendors and the attendees. Thank you all who lead and participated in these and our other events. A busy, active Sangha is a healthy Sangha.

I thank the 2018 Board and our CFO for the outstanding work they did this past year guiding OBT. I especially wish to thank Kim Kono and Shinya Ichikawa, the board members completing their terms for their service to OBT.

2019 promises to be another full year. I extend a welcome to Ann Shintani and Mai Thi La as new Board members. I am excited about some of the things that we have planned. There will be a new fund raiser program (details to be announced at a later time) and we are looking at ways to extend our community outreach through service. I have challenged the board to come up with ways to revitalize our current fund raisers and look forward to their ideas. I also challenge the Sangha to come up with new ideas to present to the board.

Anyway, I am humbled that the board has put their trust in me to continue as the OBT president for another year. Together let's make 2019 a great year for OBT.

December OBT Board Meeting Summary

Traci Kiyama, OBT Secretary

The OBT Board met on Saturday, December 8, 2018.

- Recent maintenance on the building included getting a new dryer for the annex.
- The Garden Toban has been busy maintaining and trimming the trees. They can always use more volunteers, so please let a Board member know if you are interested.
- Marilyn Achterman gave a report on facility usage, and Rev. Sugahara reported on his recent and upcoming events. Angie Hughes reported the Craft Fair did well this year.
- Marilyn and Mark Achterman will chair Mochitsuki this year with help from Ryan Davis, who is planning to take over next year.
- Katie Tamiyasu is preparing for the New Year's luncheon on Sunday, January 6.
- Event chairs are still needed for 2019 Sukiyaki Bazaar and the 2020 New Year's luncheon. Please let Ken Garner know if you are interested.
- The Board discussed some ways to add variety to our food fundraisers and possibly raise interest.
- The Board discussed selling onigiri at the 2019 Community Mochitsuki. Volunteers are needed to help sell at our booth at the event on Sunday, January 27.
- The Board discussed possibly participating in the 2019 Newberg Camelia Festival in April to sell food.
- Preparations are being made for our sangha to attend the 2019 NW District Convention to be held in February in Seattle. Please register soon.
- OBT will sign up to be part of a used vehicle donation program.
- The Board discussed possible organizations to work with for community service opportunities as a sangha with a focus on poverty.
- Chris Dart continues to work on the database.
- Traci Kiyama made suggestions to improve security of our building.
- The no pet policy at OBT was revisited. We will post a sign to remind people of this policy.
- Outgoing Board members Shinya Ichikawa and Kim Kono shared their thoughts and words of continued support to the temple.
- Officers were elected for the 2019 Board: Ken Garner, President; Charles Reneau, Vice-President; Traci Kiyama, Secretary.

Oregon Buddhist Women's Association Katie Tamiyasu

Akemashita omedetou gozaimasu! (Happy New Year!)

Hard to believe another year has come and gone, and it's 2019!

OBWA is already planning to be busy in the kitchen throughout the year.

If you'd like to know what goes on in the kitchen, we can sure use your help starting with Soba prep on December 31st at 3:30 pm for after the New Year's Eve Service. We will also be doing food prep for Ozoni for after the New Year Service on January 1st.

There will be no OBWA meeting in January. The OBWA New Year's Luncheon Meeting will be held at the Super King Buffet on Saturday, February 2nd at 11am. If you plan to join us, please contact Nancy Kajitsu at nkajitsu@gmail.com or 503-816-4025 cell.

Membership dues are $20 for those under 88 years of age, which was increased at the December 16, 2017 meeting. Dues can be paid to Judy Yamauchi at the New Year Luncheon.

Eighteen ladies have shown interest in attending The 16th World Buddhist Women's Convention to be held in San Francisco, CA from August 30th – September 1, 2019. Since we are asked to send "one check for the chapter registration", the ladies were asked to meet on Sunday, January 20th after service to turn in their individual registration forms and checks payable to OBWA. If you are interested in attending the convention, please let us know. All information and the registration form is on our website <http://www.oregonbuddhisttemple.com>.

Next month's reporter will be Marilyn Achterman.

President Ken Garner also a Minister's Assistant

At the Sunday December 9 service, culminating 3 years of study, Ken Garner was bestowed the title of Certified Minister's Assistant by BCA Bishop Kodo Umezu. Ken also received his Buddhist name from the Bishop in the Kie Shiki Affirmation Ceremony.

Dharma School Ann Shintani

Our Bodhi Day service could not be possible without the help and contributions from the Sangha. Avery chaired this service. Our OBT Family Choir sang "One Candle", under the direction of Ken Garner, and piano by Nancy Walseth. Mayu and Mika presented their portraits of Eshinni and Kakushinni, the wife and youngest daughter of Shinran Shonin – part of Dharma School's "People of Jodo Shinshu" art project. Mayu's portrait of Eshinni includes collage that used rice paper with characters for camelia blossoms, representing her long-distance correspondence with her husband; Mika shared that Kakushinni created the first temple when she dedicated a building to share her father's teachings. Other portraits included Nagarjuna by Yukim and Prince Shotoku by Martin.

Then, on the next morning, Yukaiya shared his thoughts about his percussion band experience in his Youth Message. Being in a performance group, he realized that his success and growth could not have been possible without the encouragement, passion, generosity of talented musicians, who happen to be his long-time friends and classmates. I am grateful that we have talented and thoughtful students.

Lotus Circle – January

Jean Matsumoto

The Lotus Circle was established in 2008 and many of you have been members from the very beginning. OBT is grateful for all of our members through the past ten years. You are responsible for the beautiful flowers that are available for our Flower Toban ladies to arrange each week on the altar in memory of loved ones who have passed away. Those generous donors this month are:

- Jan 6 – Jean Takashima in memory of (imo) husband Jim, his parents Noboru Newton & Tokiye, sister Ruby Sumino & brother Dick; Jean Matsumoto imo mother Mikiye
- Jan 13 – Mieko Fujita Ikeda, Lianne Akiona & Randy Ikeda imo husband and father Clarence Hisao Ikeda; Alice Tano imo husband Benny; June Shiigi imo mother Sonoe Muraoka
- Jan 20 – Anonymous imo Bobara Jones; Toshiko Hayashi imo of brother & sister-in-law Mas & Irene Hayashi; Chris Dart imo brother Dale Hoverson; Scott Winner imo parents Wayne Leroy & Jan and sister Diane; Angie Nakashima imo father Harry Okita
- Jan 27 – Anonymous imo Fumi Okubo; Kathie Sato imo husband Nobuo “Nobi”

Ken Garner (webmaster@oregonbuddhisttemple.com) has set up a webpage for Lotus Circle to share memories of loved ones. For information about joining or questions in general about the Lotus Circle, please feel free to contact me at 503-280-2463, or e-mail jamatsumoto@gmail.com.

OBT Readers' Club Sunday January 20, 2019 Dharma Exchange Ken Garner

The Buddhist Swastika and Hitler's Cross: Rescuing a Symbol of Peace from the Forces of Hate by Rev. T. K. Nakagaki

The next Readers' Club meeting is scheduled for the Dharma Exchange on January 20, 2019. This is directly after the Sunday Service. We will be discussing The Buddhist Swastika and Hitler's Cross: Rescuing a Symbol of Peace from the Forces of Hate by Rev. T. K. Nakagaki. All readers must secure their own copy of the book.

The swastika has been used for over three thousand years by billions of people in many cultures and religions—including Buddhism, Jainism and Hinduism—as an auspicious symbol of the sun and good fortune. However, beginning with its hijacking and misappropriation by Nazi Germany, it has also been used, and continues to be used, as a symbol of hate in the Western World. Hitler's device is in fact a "hooked cross." Rev. Nakagaki's book explains how and why these symbols got confused, and offers a path to peace, understanding, and reconciliation.

The conversations we have at the Book Club Dharma Exchanges are always good -- and are even better if you have had an opportunity to read all or part of the book! Please join in the conversation January 20.

Help Wanted - Mochitsuki Festival at PSU

OBT will be participating in the Portland area Japanese American community Mochitsuki Festival on Jan 27th at PSU Viking Center. We'll be selling a variety of onigiri. A team of volunteers are needed to help make and pack the onigiri early Sunday (27th) morning. No experience is necessary! We also need a few individuals who will help sell our food at the event from 11am to 4pm. Please contact Cathy Yarne or Robbie Ando if you are able to help.

72nd Annual Japanese American Graduation Banquet

Elaine Yuzuriha

It is getting to be that time of year-- and we have to think about our 2019 Japanese American High School Seniors as they get prepared for graduation. Please remind your seniors that the Japanese American Scholarships application is due on March 1st (they are very strict about the deadline). The application and qualifications are listed under scholarships on the website www.pdxjacl.org. Please check it out and if you have any questions, contact Elaine at e.yuzuriha@comcast.net for more information.

We are looking for high school seniors associated with the Japanese American community or members of Oregon Buddhist Temple to invite to the 72nd Annual Japanese American Graduation Banquet, to be held Sunday, May 5th, 2019 from 1 to 3:30 pm. If you know any graduating seniors, please let Elaine know at the above email address. It is a great afternoon spent honoring our seniors as they prepare to go out into the world. Come support our Oregon Buddhist Temple seniors Yukaiya, Rachel, and Lauren!
